This Public Notice serves as notice that, consistent with the Federal Advisory Committee Act,¹ the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) announces the next meeting of the North American Numbering Council (NANC). The meeting will be held Wednesday, February 9, 2022, beginning at 2:00 p.m., via video conference and available to the public via the Internet at <http://www.fcc.gov/live>.

At its first meeting of 2022, the NANC will consider and vote on recommendations from the Call Authentication Trust Anchor working group on a set of best practices relating to how terminating voice service providers can best protect their subscribers using caller ID authentication information. The NANC will also hear routine status reports from the Numbering Administration Oversight working group, the North American Portability Management, LLC and the Secure Telephone Identity Governance Authority. This agenda may be modified at the discretion of the NANC Chair and the Designated Federal Officer.

The NANC meeting is open to the public on the Internet via live feed from the FCC's web page at <http://www.fcc.gov/live>. Open captioning will be provided for this event.
